Fiserv announces global delivery center in Costa Rica

Fiserv Global Services (FGS) , the offshoring arm of Fiserv, Inc., a Fortune 500 company, (NASDAQ: FISV) and one of the largest providers of information technology services to the financial services industry worldwide, today announced its new global delivery center in Costa Rica. The new center is part of the company's growth strategy in countries outside the U.S. focused on leveraging world class talent available in other countries.

Fiserv's Costa Rican center will provide software development, BPO and technical support services to Fiserv and its customers, especially in the banking industry. This center is located in the community of Heredia, which is close to the capital of San Jose. The center currently employs around 80 professionals and this is expected to grow substantially in the months to come.

With this, FGS now has five global delivery service centers in two countries outside of the U.S., namely India and Costa Rica; the four existing centers are in India employing more than 1,500 professionals.

Commenting on the company's expansion plans, Dr. Arun Maheshwari, President, Fiserv Global Services Group said, "The new global services delivery center in Costa Rica is integral to our growth strategy and acts both as a near shore centre to the U.S. and as alternate source of quality people. We see Costa Rica as an attractive location with educated and skilled people, short flights to the U.S., and the same time zone as the central U.S. We have ambitious expansion plans for our centre in Costa Rica and we will also continue our geographical expansion to other lower cost countries in the next few years."

In addition to the Costa Rica center, Fiserv Global Services Group is also considering opening other global sites in areas like the Ukraine and Poland. The company's strategy is
